

Global politics and international relations

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Global politics and international relations are interlinked terms. Flaw in one impacts on the other. Similarly, flaws in global politics on certain issues have the worst impacts on international relations. However, positive role of global politics strengthens international relations.

2- Global politics leads international relations

3- Flaws in global politics

- a) US - China rivalry for becoming the superpower of the world
- b) Russia - Ukraine conflict and the West politics
- c) Anti-alliance policy among different countries
- d) Pakistan - US alliance for war on terror against Afghanistan
- e) Pakistan - India animosity in politics since their inception
- f) Pakistan - Saudi ties and Iranian revolution
- g) Saudi - Iran tricky political affairs

4- Influence of global politics on international relations

- a) US-China global politics and impacts on Pakistan's affairs
- b) Saudi-Iran rivalry and impacts on Pakistan's relations with both
- c) The west and Russia-Ukraine issue impacts Turkey relations with Russia
- d) War on terror and impact on Pakistan's neighbouring relations
- e) China's influence in European Union and the relations between the west and Europe
- f) Saudi-Iran relations and new developments in the Middle-East relations

5- Role of global politics to strengthen international relations

- a) China's global role in the Middle East maintains stability
- b) global politics need attention on humanity rather than on power
- c) Neutral role during global conflicts must be adopted
- d) Respect sovereignty of one another and avoid nuclear wars to keep relations safe

6- Conclusion