

Global politics and International relations

Outline

- 1- Introduction
- 2- Differentiate between global politics and international relations
- 3- Current manifesto of global politics and international relations
  - a) Transition from unipolarity to multipolarity
  - b) Transformation from great strategic foreign policy to geo-economic foreign policy
  - c) Impacts of hybrid war on the world
  - d) Climate politics / great power conflict
  - e) War of infrastructure corridors - B3W and BRI
  - f) Fragility of international organizations to cope international political disputes
- 4- Impacts of global politics and international relations on international society
  - a) Violation of human rights due to ongoing wars
  - b) Greater income inequality between global north and global south
  - c) Formation of alliance and anti-alliance
  - d) Intensification of arms race around the world
  - e) Ongoing ethnic and religious conflicts

5-

a)

b)

c) d)

e)

5- Methodology to eradicate global politics and international relations

- a) Restructuring international organisations to strengthen their functioning to cope international disputes
- b) Active settlement of disputes between nations
- c) Socio-economic development in crisis suffering states
- d) Creating interdependence to promote liberal world order.

6- Conclusion