

Date: _____

Day: M T W T F S

In this article, the author highlights the conditions that Pakistani people are facing nowadays. The author talked about poverty, which is facing Pakistani people, and also suggested some measures to the government to overcome Pakistan's worse condition. He suggested that the government should provide subsidies for essential items and ensure that they reach the poor. Secondly, the education sector needs reforms. The government provide a better environment for youth to learn skills and earn money for their livelihood.