

Digital Democracy: social media and political participation

Outline

1- Introduction's Thesis statements: Social media plays a very significant role in promoting digital democracy. In the era of digital democracy, political participation is very necessary to strengthen democratic system. Hence, there is a need of formulating effective policies to strengthen digital democracy.

2- Significance of digital democracy

3- Social media: an essence of democracy

- a) Social media is a bridge between political and democratic parties
- b) Execution of fundamental rights through media
- c) The easiest platform to access public voice
- d) Democratic writ of the state is encouraged by think tanks

e) Role of media to promote public safety

f) Digital technology and democracy at one platform

g) Media's effort to strengthen democratic awareness

4- Political participation in digital democracy

a) Political participation and communication with public

b) The fastest and easiest approach to address public's problems.

c) Political participation and creation of new innovative ideas

- d) Certain programs with the co-ordination of public strengthen wit of the ~~not~~ government
 - e) Policy framing model according to public opinion
 - f) Political participation in social media and national integration
- 5- Framing policies to promote an effective digital democracy
- a) Ensure independent and prejudice free role of media
 - b) Frame weekly and monthly goals to address public grievances through social media
 - c) Encourage positive step of media and public
 - d) Arrange a short talk with public on ideology of Pakistan.
- 6- Conclusion