

Education is the key to success. It enables us to develop abilities such as time management, interpersonal skills, organizational skill and so on. It certainly aid us in our quest for success. Furthermore; it develops our knowledge skills, that shows us a best way to get successful in life. The more knowledge you gain, more gain the opportunities to allow individual to achieve better possibilities in career and personal growth. Hence it is clear that education opens up the door of success for all.