In this global age, social media is playing an effective role in making connections. There are several effects of social media but chief among them is rumor spreading. Now-a-days, a rumor spreads like a fire and one has to face different kinds of questions after it. The celebrities are the easy target for it. The Pakistani cricketer Shoaib Malik & his wife Sania Mirza had to face a rumor about their married life and further they had to clarify that there is nothing like that. So, rumor spreading is not at all good for all.
