

Precis - 2003 .

Higher education lays a profound impact on the intellectual nourishment of an individual. It transforms them into capable citizens of the society, which acts as a means towards societal prosperity. It <sup>instills</sup> establishes a sense of clarity in the minds of individuals, enabling them to differentiate between good and bad. ~~and~~ Such education empowers the minds of citizens to think and perform actions discreetly. It transforms a layman into a meaningful subject of the society. To put it in a nutshell, Higher education is an embodiment of wisdom that drives dull societies towards enlightenment.