

Précis : 1

Democracy is the most difficult form of government and still nations want, because people want good and peaceful world, where human develop best. For this, it is necessary to all obey laws, show respects and tolerance for others, free of their traditions and free from all type of discrimination.

Words : 48

Title : Democracy: good and difficult form of government.

CSS-2018

Punctuation :-

- There is a slavery, that no legislation can abolish the slavery of caste.
- All that, "I am all that 'g hope to be'" "g owe to my angel mother."
- "Take away that buble", said Cromwell, pointing to the mace, which lay upon the table.
- There is only one cure for the evils, which newly acquired freedom produces, and that cure is freedom.
- History, it has been said, "is the essence of innumerable biographies."

CSS-2020

Punctuation :-

Letter between relatives and friends are called personal letters. The most important thing in such letters is the content. Don't begin with a hackneyed phrase, like "I was delighted to get your letter received your letter" or "I have often thought of writing to you". Use a vigorous clear & hearty style.

Precis:- 2

According to author, mental attitude play an important role in one's daily life. One's attitude must be healthy and optimistic. One's begin the day with full of on God, mental attitude and faith and the day become happy and productful. This attitude will change the internal complexion of your life and make life more active, assertive and successful. (58)

Title: Importance of good mental attitude.

Precis: 3

A man's first duty is to know his business and act faithfully and honestly in his sphere. Many of good intentioned person waste time to show sympathies towards others. These all types of acts are meaningless because these sympathies are not helpful to remove other's sorrows. While habitual indulge in sympathy for the sake of own interest, these types of people are more vicious. (71)

Title: Be in your own domain.
knowing one's business.

Sample 1

Democracy is the most difficult of all forms of government and yet it is one to which most nations now aspire. This is because it seems to most people to be the form of government which provides the best hope of making a world in which privileges, good fortune or the accidents of history will no longer determine the spheres of opportunity. In this, the human spirit will develop best. A successful democratic system requires a number of pre-conditions, most of them difficult in themselves to establish. It requires the active cooperation of the community for the common good. It requires institutions which can ensure that those who obey the law will not become the victims of those who do not. It requires a mutual respect and shared pride in the objectives and traditions of the community as a whole. It requires the absence of any form of discrimination based on race, sex, belief or opinion. It requires especially from those who have power and influence, restraint and patience.

and free from all kinds of prejudices and discrimination.

(58 Words)

• Sample 2

Your mental attitude is a great determining factor in your daily life. Begin the day with an expectant and energetic mental attitude towards your work and it will elevate and enhance all your activities. The spirit in which you regard the world and your fellow-men will be reflected back to you. When you are in the right

---

355

سازش

mental attitude, many things will seem to conspire and co-operate to advance your work and interests. Primarily <sup>برعکس</sup> it is your mental attitude that makes the day happy and productive or the contrary. You can demonstrate the truth of this today by looking only <sup>ابداً</sup> for the best to be intelligently optimistic, and to have confidence in the eternal supremacy of god. Make more positive resolutions regarding the things you ought to do and bring every possible reinforcement to bear upon such resolutions. <sup>گویی</sup> Assert in vigorous tones the thoughts you wish to establish as unconscious habits of your life, remembering always that while it is a great thing to conceive a great idea, it is still greater to put it into execution.

• Sample 3

To know one's own business and to mind nothing else, that is the way to carry on the work of life. This sounds like a common saying, yet few really acknowledge it even in principle, it is not often that even the first step—that of knowing one's business—is honestly taken; it must be allowed that with many there is intellectual as well as moral difficulties in the way of this first step. The first method of getting rid of the intellectual difficulty for a man is to ask himself what is not his business; and many a kindly person may be surprised to find that it has been in the habit of considering it a virtue to waste time, thought, feeling, and other means of interests which truly are no business of his at all. He may have to confess that he has been constantly wasting sympathy on sorrows and evils which he cannot remove or alleviate. Sympathy which does not mean action of some sort is not much of a virtue in any man; while in those human beings who habitually indulge in sympathy for its own sake, it is apt to become a hateful and vicious cowardice.