

OUTLINE PRACTICE

TOPIC: We are last generation to touch a book.

Name = AQSA ALI

BATCH: 47

(ISLAMABAD)

OUTLINE:

1) Introduction

There has been decline in the habit of reading physical books in Pakistan. Factors such as parenting style, technology, cost, and preference to e-book has leaded to this problem. However, by adopting certain appropriate measures we might not be a last generation to touch a book.

2) How are we the last generation to touch a book.

3) Reasons behind the decline of reading physical books.

a) Technological development in the 21st century has obviate the traditional reading culture.

b) Those who read traditional books are considered as old-fashioned.

- c) Parenting style is evolving and negligence of parents toward the golden habit of reading traditional books.
- d) Preference is given to e-books especially, in the higher education's Syst Semester System in Pakistan.
- e) Movies, Animations, and documentaries are celebrated globally.
- f) Lack of sales and cost of physical books.

4) Negative Impacts of not linked to books.

- a) People are not aware of their history and culture.
- b) Youth do not have in-depth knowledge.
- c) Easily distracted as people are reading e-books.
- d) Children lack problem solving, intellectual ability, literature writing and appropriate vocabulary skills.

Children face

- e) Various health issues due to ^ excessive screen time.
- f) Shallow knowledge is obtained through social media just to be in discussion.
- g) Children now, lack consistency and are intolerant.

5) Recommendations to improve the habit of reading physical books.

- a) Book Stalls in Universities or public platforms must be held.
- b) Cross-border literary events
must be ensured.
- c) Sales on books and book
giveaways must be encouraged.
- d) Government should highlight the importance of traditional books through various campaigns.

6) Conclusion