

Topic Sentences - There are several effects of economic crisis in Pakistan, one of them is higher unemployment.

Explanatory/Reason Sentence - The financial crisis led to an increase in unemployment in financial and business sector.

Supporting Argument - Whenever there is lower demand for goods and services, the economic activity of firm lowers. Hence, the firms start laying off workers due to lack of work.

Evidences - According to trading economic macro model and analyst expectation, Pakistan unemployment rate is projected to trend around 6.40% in 2023.

Conclusion - Consequently, unemployment greatly affect life of common people. Further, they are not even able to bear the basic need of their families.