

Names: Dr. Raahima Ahmed

Batch: Isb OB # 47

Marks: ?/20

Q1: The difference between the fear of death in humans and fear of ~~dark~~ dark in children is that humans tend to be afraid of death by the frightful stories of dying man. While, the stories of ghosts and superstitious activities increase the fear of dark in children.

Q2: The religious and sacred view of death is consideration of death as the transition to next world and regard death as the path which leads to commencement of punishment due to evil done by humans in this world.

Q3: Some monks have described painful experiences as most agonizing and unbearable, which they underwent themselves to purify their souls. These experiences mentioned in their books haunt humans and tend them to be afraid of death.

Q4: Roman philosopher Seneca; considers that the thought of death itself does not illicit fright in men as the fear of death ceremonies and circumstances ~~haunt~~ terrorises men. ~~from the~~

Q5: The vulnerable condition of man in last moments of his life, when he appears pale and yellow, experiences convulsions and utters groans. Furthermore, increase the fear of death. Furthermore, mourning rituals done by his family and friends make the death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise!