

We Are the Last Generation to Touch a Book.

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Our relation with books is weakening day by day. The culture of book reading is diminishing with rapid advancement in technology and with the quest for smart work. Technology on one hand distracts the mind (social media), and at the other hand it provides easy access to information (ChatGPT and YouTube) that eliminates the need for engaging with books.

2. How we are last generation to touch a book.

3. Factors behind the divorce between humans and books.

- a) Lack of book reading culture at the grass-root level
- b) Excessive use of digital gadgets
- c) Unavailability of quality books in the far-flung areas
- d) Addiction with social media
- e) Conventional libraries instead of modern
- f) Sky-rocketing inflation has made the people to limit themselves to just bread earners.
- g) Monotonous busy routine

4. Implications of breaking ties with books

a) Creativity through book is replaced with social media's addiction

b) Increasing psychological problems

c) A rise in the eye and skin impairments due to longer screen time

d) Increasing intellectual poverty by not learning from historical and creative books

e) Lack of peace of mind

f) Empathetic behaviour is replaced with robotic nature

g) Role of debate and discussion platforms is decreasing due to decline in book reading culture

5. The ways through which next generation can also feel the vibes of reading books.

a) Conduct book festivals in schools as well as in universities.

b) Make the availability of books easy and at low cost

c) Establish attractive and modern libraries throughout the country.

6. Conclusion