

Arbaz Khan

28339, Batch 39, RWP-39.

K

Date: _____

Women universities are agent to change.

Thesis Statement:

First and last part of the t.s are same.

Women universities ~~are~~ prospect of the ^{Progress} flourishment of the society, as ^{They} it would impart education, skills & will make women stand equally along side to men which will escalate the development of the society at all levels. Such as ^{an} international, national, & individual.

"Is Pakistan ready for digital revolution"

T.S:

These are two separate words

Pakistan doesnot meet the salient criteria for procurement of digital revolution, as it is grappling with issues of dissonance among elite factions of society, frequent power shift, delay in releasing of funds, & lack of domain knowledge. education?

Expressing a simple idea using complex vocabulary is not a good idea. The vice versa, however, is encouraged

~~The Fool~~

The fool speaks & the wise listens

T.S:

Speaking and reacting immediately is need of the hour sometimes, still improvised reactions can make one fall into the trape of embracement & could affect the overall personality image of the individual