(3) Suicide

suicide triggered by circumstances. there's always a reason that something happens. According to the survey 176 people in Chitral ended their lives between 2013 and 2019. This rate is so alarming. it's so easy to name it suicide but there's always a reason that someone prefers to end his life. the reason could be depression. Depression is something that is triggered by events, unwanted thought. such thoughts or events born with issues like domestic violence, abuse partner, toxic relationships with parents or sibling, exam pressure, failure in careers and so on. Rather than just naming it suicide the thing is to investigate the root cause, the circumstances that gives someone really tough time that ending life seems so easy than to talk on the issue.
