

Topic Sentences - There are several effects of economic crisis in Pakistan, one of them is higher unemployment. rate

Explanatory/Reason Sentence - The financial crisis led to an increase in unemployment in financial and business sector.

Supporting Argument -

Whenever there is low demand for goods and services, the economic activity of the firms slows down. Hence, the firms start laying off workers due to lack of work.

Evidences -

According to trading economic macro model and analyst expectation, Pakistan's unemployment rate is projected to trend around 6.40% in 2023.

Conclusion =

Consequently, unemployment greatly affects lives of common people. Further, they are not even able to fulfil the basic needs of their families.

The topic sentence is about effect of economic crisis, while the conclusion is about the effect of unemployment. Align the conclusion with topic sentence.