

CHALLENGES AND ISSUES OF POVERTY ALLEVIATION IN PAKISTAN.

OUTLINE

Do NOT add quotes in thesis statement as it is supposed to be your POV on the topic

1- Introduction.

Thesis statement does not reflect your POV on the topic rather, it reflects on poverty as a curse

Thesis statement: (According to Jean Guenon "He is poor who doesn't have enough; he is poorer who cannot get enough".) Poverty anywhere is a challenge to the Prosperity everywhere. It is one of the worst curses and miseries that a human can face and which hits the well-being of a society.

2- Practices of Poverty alleviation in Pakistan.

Outline contains points only

Pakistan has a long history of Poverty reduction policies and intervention in the policies. However, the persistently high poverty levels reflect the ineffectiveness of these measures resulting mainly from a focus on static measures and limited outreach.

3- Issues afflicted with poverty alleviation in Pakistan.

a) IMF projecting a sharp reversal ahead by strict conditions.

b) Inadequate implementation of pro-poor policies.

c) Bureaucratic and Political delays in regularly updating the National Socio-economic Registry survey.

- rapidly increasing population strains resources

- d) Deep rooted economic inequalities
- e) The imbalance of macroeconomic crisis resulting from structural economic issues.

Such as...?
Mention a couple points in subheadings to clarify

4- Challenges faced by these issues on Pakistan.

- a) The inverse relationship between poor governance and poverty.
- b) Non-transparency in Resource allocation to centers and provinces.
- c) low level of human development resulting in weak living standards.
- d) Increasing sectarian conflicts in rural areas of Pakistan.
- e) The high rate of deforestation in the country has endangered biodiversity.

Clarify the relevance of the point with the topic

5. Pakistan has remained committed to improving multi-dimensional poverty measures.

Make this part concise as not asked in topic

- a) Government pledged to reduce poverty by 6% to 19% in this year which?
- b) Khushali bank as a network to expand the microfinance in the country.
- c) Initiative of Ehsaas Program for the social welfare of Pakistanis.
- d) Enhancement of the role of education by private sector.
- e) Strong Potential of public - civil society Partnership.

6- Conclusion

- f) Installing wells that provide access to clean water.
- g) Building schools to educate disadvantaged

Discuss solutions of which the problem have been discussed earlier

Communities.

b. Conclusion.