

Global Warming: Its causes and Consequences

OUTLINE

Bland expression. Rephrase.

1. Introduction

~~Thesis statement:~~ Global warming has causes and consequences ~~on~~ all over the world. These causes and consequences have made global warming a serious threat to a great extent. However, by applying preventive measures it can be restored.

2. Causes and consequences of global warming

3. Causes of Global Warming

- Emission of green house gases
- Excessive use of Insecticide, Pesticide and fertilizers
- Deforestation
- Burning of fossil fuels
- Nuclear radiation
- Rapid Urbanization
- Population Explosion

4. Threats due to Global Warming

- Severe floods
- Rising sea level
- Melting of glaciers
- Depletion of ozone layer
- Loss of biodiversity
- Decline in agricultural Production
- Increase in the range of diseases

5. ~~Measurement~~ to counter Global Warming
- a) Plantation on mass level ~~energy~~
 - b) Use of renewable resources
 - c) Reduction of greenhouse gases.
6. Conclusion

Very simple outline.
It misses some pertinent points in all aspects. Attempt a similar topic from past papers.
Add a crunch