Q: Write four paragraphs on any topic:

(1) Our education system gives less knowledge and more stress. Teachers prefer cramming over concept clearing. They include a certain portion of syllabus in exams. Students cram that portion and forget right after their exams. Moreover, they are pressurized with unnecessary work load and low grades. Ultimately, this stress becomes the reason of their failure. So our education system causes stress and ~~doesn't~~ ^{does not} focus on providing quality knowledge.

(2) My father is a very hard-working man. He works more than nine hours a day. He lives away from the family just for his job. Although he is a heart patient, ~~but~~ ^{yet} he never delays his work. He makes sure to spend time with the family despite his busy routine. He provides us with every basic necessity of life. Likewise, he tries his best to help his colleagues and staff. Thus, my father works very hard for his job and to run his family.

(3) Road to success is not smooth. Success and failure go side by side. Your hardwork can take you on the path of success. But sometimes your hardwork ~~doesn't~~ ^{does not} make you achieve your goal. Though failures make you strong, ~~but~~ your hardwork ^{gets} ~~with~~ rewarded, one day, with success. So, success and failure both are a part of life.

4) Healthy food leads to a healthy lifestyle. Sentence is grammatically incomplete As healthy food provides nourishment to our body, it It helps us in our physical as well as mental growth. It gives us enough energy for working and other daily activities. Moreover, it ensures a life without certain diseases. Also avoiding junk food and fried items can make us more fit and healthy. Thus, eating healthy food is the basic requirement of living a healthy life.

Do not use informal words such as doesn't didn't etc.

Although is followed by yet, not but.
