

A friend walks in when everyone walks out.
Outline

1- Introduction

Too vague, it is just paraphrase of thesis statement without your own argument

Thesis statement: Life is full of troubles. In such incidents of life, a friend remains forever when all leave in bad times. Hence, everybody needs a good friend in life.

2- A good friend is a gift from God

Write the point not the metaphor

3- How a friend is inclusive?

- A sincere friend is an organ of his friend's body.
- Norries are deeper, but friendship is the deepest.
- A good friend is strength in all bad times.
- Fear of any thing is kicked away by a good friend.
- Long path is cut into a short path.

Subpoints are merely rewording of thesis statement, not directly and concretely related to main point 1

4- A good friend is ^{the} main pillar in every step of life

- Social cohesion is ^{Knit} knit with friendship
- Financial issue and a good friend → your point?
- Image of a real friend in troubles → your point?
- Real friend: main player of success

5) Role of a friend in mental relaxation

- One's inner is attracted by one's friendship ?

Rephrase, not clear

- b) A good friend acts like a psyche?
- c) Depressing to mind and comfort by a friend
- d) A good friendship increases life capacity and happiness

6- Why there is need to increase friendship?

strengthen

- a) A friend keep walking in when every one walks out
- b) A friend encourages & consda
- c) A friend is light in darkness

Thesis statement should reflect all the points of main headings

7- Conclusion

Brainstorm the topic comprehensively before writing examples, make sure to come up with concrete examples and explore the topic on social, economic, religious, political, international/national levels (whatever applicable) Otherwise do not choose abstract topic