Nuclear challenge to world peace during 21st Century.

Topic sentence does not usually include examples. If it does, then the whole paragraph will refer to those examples.

Topic Sentence :- Nuclear weapons are, simply, the most indiscriminating inhumane weapons ever invented, and the only ones capable of destroying life on this planet as we know from bombs attacks over the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Annihilating

Reason/Explanation :- Apart from mass destruction and death, the generation of people and animals who survive will perish for many decades, as in Japan.

Supporting Point :- During 21st century, the nuclear weapons challenged the world peace. As many countries are in the race of achieving nuclear power and others trying to stop them, as to maintain their dominancy.

Relevance to topic sentence which is about 'indiscriminatory weapons'?

Evidence :- The Global nuclear order had been in trouble as the Ukraine war began. Since 2006, the North Korean regime and China have steadily advanced their nuclear capabilities. The Iran is also in the way to achieve its nuclear power; (Francesca Giovannini, The Role of Nuclear Weapons in 21st century, spring 2022).

Conclusion :- This shows that every country wants to be a nuclear power just like Iran, and this may lead to Global War, which is a threat to peace.

Irrelevant to topic sentence.
