

SHOULD STUDENT STUDY

this title is unclear and basically impractical too

WHILE DOING WORK

along with their pursuance of study

Students should work while study because of its potential benefits. Earlier, working with study was only associated with underprivileged students. Now, considering the benefits of being a working student, candidates of ~~the~~ affluent backgrounds are also working. Benefits like; time management, people management and finance management can only be attained while working in a corporate world.

Moreover, bounced in the piles of books and ~~forgetting~~ ^{memorising} every page is nothing whereas, stepping out of your comfort zone and facing the challenges of the corporate world ~~with~~ ^{will} is giving an edge to the working student. Hence, doing parttime while studying is a part of the latest education.
