

Comprehension 2020

Qs1. Define Globalization?

Globalization is process of cementing economic, culture and political bonds between people of different country of world

Qs2. What is electronic mass communication?

Electronic mass communication is process of contact one or other beyond borders of nation

Qs3. What does the word Third World denote?

Third world denote the developing countries which have no resource to fulfill their basic needs

Qs4. What is privatization?

Privatization is process in which all property owned are private.

Qs5. Explain Liberalism in the above context?

In above context Liberalism is define as the people become independent through globalization, mass communication and computers networking. They become economical independent