

Essay.

Date: 11 8 23

Topic: Pakistan has a sham democracy

Outline

1) Introduction

Over 75 years, Pakistan's democratic ideals have been compromised. Rising military influence, human rights erosion and rule of law deficiencies reveal a deteriorating democracy. Urgent remedial action such as implementation of constitution is needed to rebuild public trust and establish fair democracy.

2) Was Pakistan ever democratic?

- a, The military dictatorships in the history of Pakistan.
- b, Weak parliamentary system to govern the country on their own ; Civilian - Military imbalance.

3) Evidence of Pakistan's Sham democracy

- a, Increase military interference in all the arenas.
- b, Weak rule of law; abuse of the constitution.
- c, Erosion of all human rights.
- d, Monopoly of unstable political parties working for self-interest rather than state.
- e) All provinces are not treated equally.
- f) Suppressed freedom of all modes; Media (Digital and Electronic), Journalism to manipulate people.

4) Consequences of Sham democracy on the country:

- a, Economic instability: Power remain in the hands of the elites (1%).
- b, Social injustice: High racism, Generational impact.
- c, People lose faith in the system hence turn hostile.
- d, Surge in criminal activities: threat to National Security.
- e, Brain Drain: Skilled people wait for the chance to migrate.

Date:

--	--	--

f) International image of the country diminishes.

5) How can Pakistan establish a fair democratic system?

- a) Departments must be contained to their domains.
- b) The system to propose equal opportunities: Education, employment.
- c) Implementation of the constitution.
- d) Reinforce Accountability: system of check and balance.
- e) Strengthen the justice system and no human rights violation.
- f) Political stability: New parties whose stake is in the country.
- 6) Conclusion.