

Topic: Unemployment due to lack of skills.

Topic Sentence:

Unemployment due to lack of skills has increased manifold.

Explanatory Sentence:

Due to lack of skills, candidates are unable to match job requirement resulting in unemployment.

Supporting Points:

During recent years, unemployment has increased and the major reason behind it is lack of skill. Due to fast changing market trends, candidates are unable to equip themselves with the latest knowledge and certifications resulting in mismatch between the job requirement and the skill available.

Evidence:

A study by "Edtech" and skill-development company "Imagine It" has found that 33% of educated youth in India are unemployed due to lack of skills, despite getting a degree.
(India Today, Sep 2021)

Conclusion:

In a nutshell, unemployment due to lack of skill has grave consequence (107 words).

Topic: Lack of Student Counselling in higher education

Topic Sentence

Lack of student counselling in higher education has negatively impacted both the life and the career of students.

Explanatory Sentence:

Due to lack of student counselling, various problems in students ~~occur~~ ranging from mental health crises to opting a specific career go undiscussed.

Supporting Point:

Due to lack of student counselling, university students are unable to discuss their mental health problems ~~which~~ ultimately resulting in low confidence and lesser social interaction. Another important aspect is unavailability of counsellors. Due to unavailability of counsellors students are unable to select the right career resulting in lower job gain, sadly ending in depression and anxiety.

Evidence:

In an article issued by Daily Times,

1000 university students in USA commit suicide because of depression and anxiety. In the same article, it was mentioned in a developing country like India, 37% of the university student commit suicide.

(Saima Faisal, Wake-up call for ^{Nov} Student counselling, 2020)

Conclusion:

In a nutshell, lack of student counselling has drastic impacts on the life of student.