

guide some strategies. Why to improve.

Q Define the term probation. Describe conditions of probation.

Answer- Introduction

"Probation is a correctional factor
of any criminality."

Probation is a systematic process of correction. In fact, probation is a correctional institutional process. However, certain conditions are on probation process. Therefore, probation process is conditional correction system.

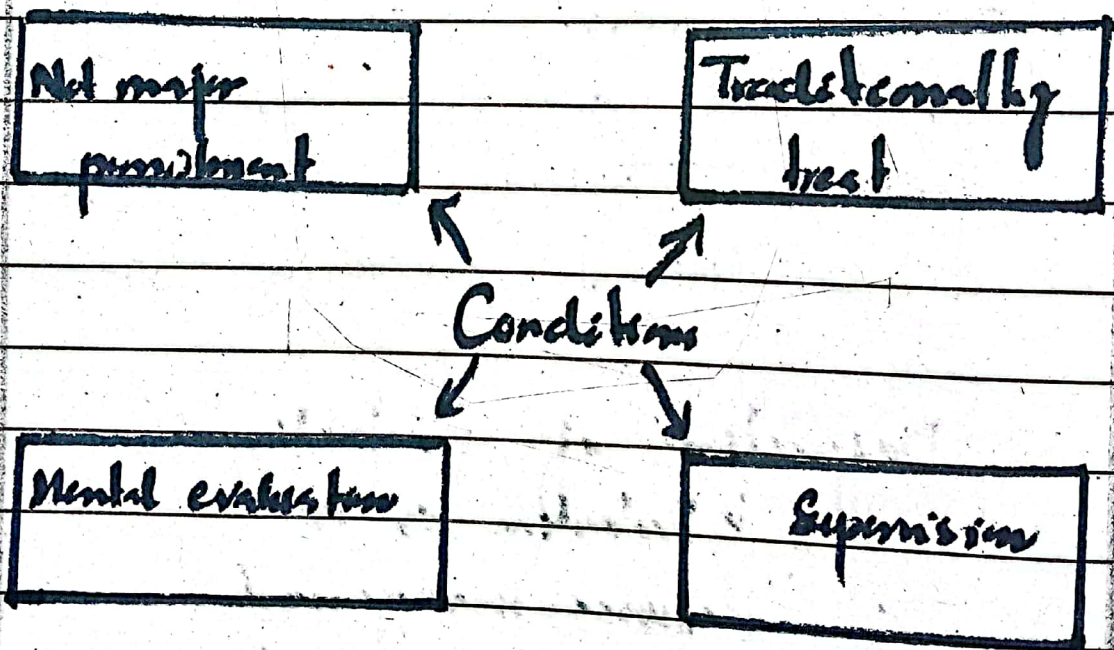

2. Definition of probation

"Probation is a resource management
within community
through community
resources."

← John DeMott

Probation is a community based systemic process. In fact, it is a technical process to correct criminality within society. Therefore, probation is a correctional justice led process.

3- Conditions of probation
 The following are conditions:

a) Traditionally treatment of criminals
 Criminals are treated traditionally under prob.

ation process. Not strict legal conditions are applied during probation process.

"First time criminals under probation are treated as traditional methods not by legally."

(-Jimmie Delaney 2018)

Therefore, traditional ways are allowed under probation.

by Not major punishment to criminals

Criminals under probation are escaped of major punishment. They are not allowed to have sentencing or capital punishment source.

• Probation process helps in simplicity

of punishment of criminals."

(-Tejvan Hussain, probation
process in Pakistan, 2019.)

Thus, probation does not allow any form of major punishment

c) Under supervision of a probation officer

Probation is done
under supervision of probation officer. In fact, probation officer observe regular behavior of criminals and maintain this report.

"Supervision of a probation
officer is in essence of probation
process."

Hence, supervision of a probation officer is necessary in probation.

d) Complete mental health evaluation

Complete mental health evaluation is the most important in probation. In fact, mental measurement decides further process under probation.

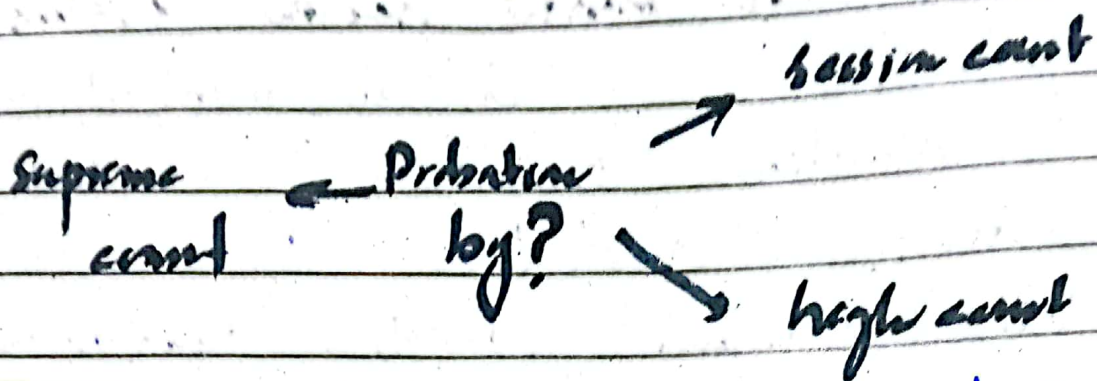

"Probation leads to mental evaluation under certain conditions in probation systems."

Therefore, mental health evaluation is a necessary condition of probation process.

4- Who gives probation?

Probation is promoted by justice system. In fact, justice officers decide whether to release on probation or not.

"Probation can be given by judge of my court."

Thus, probation is given by justice system.

5- Conclusion

• Probation is a correctival

process of community development,
(-Tequal Housing)

Probation is a correctival process. It is valued by justice system. Moreover, several conditions maintain essence of probation. Therefore, probation is a reformation led systematic process.