

Commercialization of education in Pakistan as challenge to intellectual development

Outline

- 1- Introduction. Thesis statement: - In Pakistan, commercialization of education has given challenges to intellectual development. Certain factors lead to commercialization of education such as, private sectors, parents' reliance on private education, future perceptions etc. Resultantly, several challenges including uniform education, unintellectual leaders, skills affects intellectual development. Thus, suggestive measure best adopted to reduce ^{challenges of commercialization of education}

2- Commercialization of education in Pakistan

3- Factors behind commercialization of education

- Rapid development of private sectors in education
- Parents' reliance on private education
- Future perceptions of well-being
- Career of strong and descent employment
- Moral and social concerns with special centers
- Money power of people leads to commercialization of education

4- Challenges of commercialization of education to intellectual development

- Threat to uniform education: one education for all
- Gives birth to unintellectual political leaders
- Skills in few hands: leads to waste economic sector
- Leads to social imbalance in society
- Affects climate due to lack of proper intellectual in public sector

- f) Decline of public intellectual institutions
g) Waste of public intellectual in useless activities on social media

5- Suggestive Measures to curtail challenges led by commercialization of education

- a) To adequate fund for public education
b) To get parents' trust and cooperation
c) To introduce digital learning technologies in public schools
d) To increase enrollment and to ensure digital attendance

6- Conclusion

Another Thesis Statement.

plz check

In Pakistan, commercialization of education has given challenge to intellectual development. Certain factors affect intellectual development in the form of uniform development, un intellectual leaders, and skills. Therefore, some measures be adopted to curtail challenges of commercialization of education for better intellectual development