

Paragraph writing Practice

Topic: The benefits of learning a 2nd language

Outline subheading: Learning a second language leads to increased tolerance towards other cultures

Topic Sentence: Learning a second language to language leads to increased tolerance towards other cultures.

Explanatory or Reasoning sentence: Ethnocentrism seems to be rooted in the minds of Pakistani youth and history has no stories to tell where ethnocentric behaviour leads to a happy ending.

Supporting point: In Pakistan we rely on Urdu to be the bond that holds us all together however even Urdu isn't spoken by most people in the country.

Evidence: When a citizen is only fluent in the language of their native province it leads to alienation and a false sense of superiority. Learning the language of another province opens doors of enlightenment and strengthens the bond amongst the citizens.

Concluding Sentence: Hence learning a second language allows people to learn more about other cultures and allows them to become tolerant towards them.

words: 125