

What Pakistan need the most: Charter of Economy or Charter of Democracy

1 Introduction

Thesis statement

A strong democracy and economic growth are important for the prosperity of Pakistan. Charter of Democracy is the dire need of the time because without political stability, Pakistan cannot stand on its feet.

2 Importance of Charter of Economy and Charter of Democracy

3 Pakistan needs charter of Democracy (Thesis)

- a) Democracy ensures political stability.
- b) Formulation of future plans, reforms and consistency of policies through charter of Democracy.
- c) It strengthens rule of law, security and governance.
- d) Supreme authority for decision making lies in the parliament.
- e) Weak Democracy since Independence

4 Pakistan needs Charter of Economy (Antithesis)

- a) Economic growth and development can be achieved <sup>through</sup> ~~by~~ Charter of Economy.
- b) Formulation of targetted macroeconomic policies.

c) Sovereignty of a country cannot be depended without money.

d) Failure of politicians to deliver as the country already have the charter of democracy,

e) Weak economy since independence.

5. Pakistan needs charter of Democracy at first (synthesis)

a) Political stability and true democracy leads to economic growth

b) Good governance is required for the implementation of economic policies.

c) The countries with true democracy have achieved economic growth and stability.

d) Provincial autonomy is the result of charter of democracy.

e) Responsibility of economic crises lies in weak democratic institutions since independence.

6. Conclusion.