

Date
3-Aug-23

OUTLINE:-

TOPIC:- Choose your friends wisely but choose your enemies even more carefully.

1. Introduction

Friends and enemies are the two types of the bicycles of human life. Choosing both needs deliberate thinking as they both affect human life. However, even more pondering is required while choosing enemies, as enemies sharpen, strengthen and define ^{one's} human goals.

2. Choosing friends and enemies affects one's life.

3. Why is it good to act wisely while choosing friends.

a) Person is known by the friends he keeps.

b) Good friends support through thick and thin

c) Company of criminals can only produce criminal

d) Being closer to one with good etiquette, brings immeasurable benefits

4- How enemies shapes the lives?

- a) your enemies describe you
- b) enemies define your strategy and tactics
- c) gives power to fight
- d) enemies are the proof of one's capabilities.

5- Choosing enemy needs more careful consideration because:

- a) Mighty opposites are always good for growth and convictions.
- b) You get nothing by fighting with someone who has nothing to lose.
- c) Incompetent rival is a waste of time and talent.
- d) Enemy with focused aim will keep you focused.

6- Choosing enmity is changing the world.

- a) power competition between US and China
- b) Industrialization and digital revolution in the world
- c) enmity between competent rivals
Challenging democracy in the country
- d) competition among McDonalds, KFC

burgerhouse and many others

7- Conclusion