

Precis (Year 2016).

Draft: 1

Nature - Descriptive

Subject - Literature

Tense - Past and few sentences in Present/Future

Direct Speech - Yes

Example - Yes

1st Person - Yes

Word Limit - Given.

(Deciding the trip)

i) The writer, during his last summer vacation, wanted to go to destination that was exotic as well as free of tourists. It was on a friend's suggestion that ~~he~~ he opted for Cherokee

(Qualla Boundary)

ii) On reaching Cherokee, their first stop was town called Qualla Boundary. This town had everything that a perfect tourist spot has including a beautiful scenery, tribal crafts and historical pageants.

(Meeting the locals and learning about them)

iii) Next, they visited the souvenir shops where they met a ~~man~~ local shopkeeper. He invited them for a lunch and chatted with them for long. He shared how the people of Cherokee earn their livelihood during the tour off-peak period.

(Museum visit)

↳ The last ~~stop~~ place that the ~~was~~ author visited was the art museum of Cherokee. The author loved every bit of this visit and expressed the wish to visit another exotic place next year.

Final Draft

Title : A Trip to Cherokee

The ~~an~~ writer, during his last summer vacations, wanted to visit a unique yet exotic destination. His friend suggested visiting Cherokee and so they went. On reaching Cherokee, their first stop was Qualla Boundary which turned out to be a perfect tourist spot for it had a beautiful scenery and a mesmerizing tribal craftsmanship and historical pegeantry. Their next stop was a souvenir shop where they met a local who treated them to lunch and chatted with them for long He told them how the Cherokees earn livelihood during the tour off-peak periods by indulging in events like "Bingo Weekend".

Before returning home, the writer visited arts museum. He thoroughly enjoyed his trip and would love to visit another extoic place like this again.

Word Count : 123