

Topic: What I Would Do If I Got One Billion Rupee
Sub Idea: Charity

If I got one billion Rupee, I would use a big chunk of it for charity. As, charity fosters common good in society. There are many sectors which demand charity; however, I would like to donate for disabled persons. In context of Pakistan, a report by Pakistan Bureau of Statistics asserts that 6.2 percent of population is suffering from disability. The donated money would use for the purpose of special education, particularly, for providing essential tools to assist them in learning. It will encourage independence and bring some ease and comfort in their lives. Additionally, being a muslim, it is my moral obligation to give for charity if I get money. In this regard, one prophet Muhammad, peace be upon him, said, "The best charity is that which is practiced by a wealthy person". In short, giving for charity would be my first priority if I got one billion rupees.
