

Translation (Paper - 2020)

Every nation in the world has an education system compatible to the temperaments of its nation which builds and achieves national and its goals. And nation keeps on working for the desired goals. Hence, education system of any nation is the universal system of training which helps in growth of mental capabilities and character building of inhabitants of the nation. Education system trains people in a way that people transform the destiny of the nation.