

General Paragraph.

Resurgence of Terrorism. ①

The revival of terrorism is once again ~~seen~~ ^{observed} in the country. Due to the political transitions, the situation is already critical but resurgence of terrorism is making it more severe. The main ~~are~~ ^{were} victims of these militant groups are two provinces of the state: KPK and Balochistan.

The people of these provinces are struggling for the peace. Recently two attacks were reported in these provinces. In Qawadar city, the militant group attack the Chinese workers but luckily they were in the bullet proof vehicle and were all survived. In KPK (Bajur), the terrorist group attack the soldier of the forces. As a result of which one soldier was died. Although these terrorism attacks are wide known by the chief organizations of the state.

The chief of Army staff in the defense day parade pay a thanks and attribute to the people of KPK and Balochistan for their silent struggle to counter terrorism.

②

The people of the agencies held a rally in the recent days, following the great political leaders. The aim of this rally was to bring peace, counter terrorism and provide security. So it is necessary for the state to provide peace and security to these peoples because they have been exposed to such harsh situations many years ago.