

Topic : We are not known by our words, but by our actions.

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

2. Crunch Paragraph

3. An individual is attributed by his actions, not by his words

a) Words just vanish but actions leave imprints of an individual's Personality

b) Actions determine character of a person in his dealings

c) An individual's integrity is damaged if his actions are not according to his words

d) Good actions indicate good moral qualities, bad actions indicate bad moral qualities

e) Consistency in actions contributes to a person's trustworthiness

f) Actions are often more sincere and impactful than words

g) If a person's words and actions do not align, he will be perceived as a hypocrite

4. At professional and societal levels, actions carry more significance than words

a) People who show actions more than words are considered ideal at any profession

b) Actions achieve trust that is an important criteria for successful professional life

c) Social acceptance greatly depends on actions

d) Actions of people collectively influence the trends of society

e) In different societies, actions holds different perceptions depending upon culture and norms.

5. Global Aspects of importance of actions over words

a) Leaders characterized by false promises and fake praises lose their influence

b) Those countries are recognized with praise whose people's actions are taking them towards progress

c) Modern nations understand the critical importance of actions over words

d) Countries' trade and bilateral relations are also influenced by their actions

e) Actions carry the weight of words

6. Conclusion