

Inflation in Pakistan - A governance failure

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: The economy of Pakistan is in tailspin, due to economic and political misgovernance, which has rendered heavy dent on citizen social and day to day life. However, economic and political recourse can lead to sustainable growth and low inflation.

2- Global overview of inflation

3- Causes of inflation in Pakistan

- Ⓐ Unequal growth pattern i.e. boom and bust cycle
- Ⓑ mismanagement of monetary policy
- Ⓒ Fiscal Policy challenges
- Ⓓ high internal demand and cost push
- Ⓔ Increase in global energy prices

4- Economic and Political misgovernance led to high inflation

- Ⓐ Political instability led to dead-lock over important policy issue
- Ⓑ High budget deficit
- Ⓒ Inefficient price control mechanism

④ Absence of Local government to control inflation

⑤ Exchange rate mismanagement led to increase in inflation

5- Misgovernance impact on citizen

- ⑥ Increased poverty and inequality
- ⑦ Increase in cost of living
- ⑧ Increase in food prices & transport
- ⑨ Loss of business
- ⑩ Increase in mental and psychological cases

6- steps to reduce inflation and promote good governance in Pakistan

- ⑪ Strengthen monetary and fiscal policy
- ⑫ Promote local government
- ⑬ undertake structural reform in economy
- ⑭ strengthen regulatory institution to curb cartelization and monopolies
- ⑮ efficient price control mechanism
- ⑯ Increase social service net to help vulnerable segment

7- conclusion

Is Pakistan facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently?

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Hybrid warfare is compounding socio-political instability in Pakistan. Moreover, it has given impetus to economic crisis which has manifolded hybrid warfare challenges for Pakistan.

2- Overview of hybrid warfare in South Asia

3- Pakistan is efficiently facing the challenge of hybrid warfare (thesis)

a- Global dis-information campaign

: a case of Indian chronicles b- Resurgence of TTP and Baloch separatist.

c- Use of FATF and other

Multi-lateral Institutions (MLIs)

to coerce Pakistan.

d- Speculation of economic default to characterize Pakistan as a failed state.

e- Rising Youth hopelessness^{and alienation} from Political instability

4- Pakistan is not efficiently facing the challenge of hybrid warfare (Antithesis) a- A tool of state to attain absolute statism.

b- Effective government response has crushed TTP and Baloch insurgency.

c- FATF and other MLIs economically incentivizing Pakistan

d- Pakistan is economically viable and still relevant e- Smooth transition of democratic setup and Youth participation manifest no hybrid warfare

5- Hybrid warfare is becoming deadlier for state and society (synthesis)

a- Attack against institutions head

: A case of 9 May incident

b- Renewed attack against personnel of Law enforcement agency (LEAs).

c- 'Grey list' and IMF a tool to coerce and delink Pakistan from China orbit

d- Pakistan being portrayed as a troubled and irrelevant state.

e- Heightened political instability and brain drain is being hostile
portrayed in foreign media

6- Conclusion

Does Freedom of Speech gives one the right to insult?

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Freedom of Speech is an pivotal right of every state citizen. But it does not give anyone the right to insult others' belief, religion or opinion.

Hence a respectfull and responsible freedom of speech is the need of hour.

2-Historical genesis of the idea of freedom of speech

3-Freedom of speech does not give the right to insult (thesis)

a- It leads toward unnecessary criticism and insult.

b- Reinforces ethnocentrism - a case of Charlie Hebd cartoon

c- build up hatefull narrative - a case of rising Islamophobia

d- leads toward Populism and political cult: a case of Bajrangdal and cow vigilantes in India.

4-Freedom of speech donot give the right to insult (Antithesis)

- a - Cornerstone of democracy
- b - It is a form of expression
- c - need to see it through cultural relativism
- d - Freedom of speech is subjective to one's own belief.
- e - not a digital divide but manifest elements of plurality and liberty

5 - Freedom of speech is necessary but not at the cost of insult (synthesis)

- a - democracy does not allow one to impede others opinion
- b - not a form of expression - 15th March a day to combat Islamophobia
- c - desecration of Holy Quran in Europe not cultural relativism but an insult and provocation.
- d - Not subjective as data shows rising insult against Muslims in Europe, US & India.
- e - Not manifesting plurality but exacerbating polarization between West and Islam

6 - Conclusion

Female harassment at work places exposes deeper social faultlines

1- Introduction

Thesis Statement: Female harassment is becoming a societal endemic. As it perpetuates gender imbalance followed by a culture of victim blaming, power inequity and cultural norms. Hence a collective effort is needed to rootout this menace.

2- Historical overview of female harassment and society attitude toward it

3- Gender imbalance perpetuates power dynamics that promote harassment a- Historical context of gender inequality

b- Gender based power inequality influences female harassment leadership

c- Low representation of women: A glass ceiling

4- Kinds of female harassment at workplace a- Direct and indirect favours

b- Unfavourable working environment

c- Inappropriate comments and racial slurs.

5- Harassment at work place - manifestation of social faultlines

- a - Victim blaming: A case of Mukhtar Mai
- b - Deep rooted gender norms give impetus to harassment
- c - Lack of legal protection to women: A case of "Metoo movement"
- d - Toxic corporate culture
- e - Double burden on women : psychological, emotional and financial
- f - fear of retaliation and job insecurity - "Harvey Weinstein case"

6- Measures to overcome Female harassment at work place

- a - Creating safe working environment
- b - Developing counter-harassment training program in corporate setup
- c - Encouraging by-stander intervention
- d - Holding harassers accountable
- e - Initiating national dialogue and conferences to change society mindset.

7 - conclusion