

Afan Sher.

(1)

CSS-2021) What is the belief in the Day of Judgment?
Explain its effects on individual and collective lives of human beings.

Belief in Day of Judgment, one of the fundamentals is complete "IMAANI", is that one day all human beings will gather and be accountable to Allah for what they did in their earthly life.

If someone denies Day of Judgment, ~~then he denies~~ ~~one of the attributes of Allah:~~ ~~AL-HAKAMI~~, ^{Meaning that} Allah is the giver of justice. Who will give justice to one who was punished wrongly in this life, and will give ~~that~~ punishment to one who did wrong but was not accountable to anyone in this world? He is Allah to whom everyone will be accountable on Day of Judgment. So it is 100% logical to believe in "Al'Iman".

So, belief in Day of Judgment means sense of ~~being~~ ^{being} being answerable to ^{Allah} everything we did in our temporary life, and earthly life is analogous to examination held to believers of "Al'Iman".

•) Helps in promoting justice:-

~~Person~~ one, who can define justice, in early life will learn of decision making and ^{with} always ~~will~~ remain just. He knows that

"Then for the one who had rebelled, and preferred the worldly life, Hell will be the abode" (Al-Baqar).

•) Makes a person patient

If someone faces difficulty in life, and didn't get fruitful result for their sheer hardwork, then he knows that Allah will compensate him with much better reward on day of judgment and will try to remain steadfast.