

Global Warming, fact or fiction?

OUTLINE.

1. Introduction.
(Thesis statement).
2. Crunch paragraph.
3. Global Warming is a fact (Thesis)
 - a. Increase in ^{average} global temperature.
 - b. Unprecedented snow melting.
 - c. Obvious extreme weather patterns.
 - d. Displacements as a result of Global Warming.
4. Global Warming is a fiction (Antithesis)
 - a. Global temperature is not new.
 - b. Ice melting happening before as well.
 - c. Extreme weather patterns since back then.
 - d. Displacements are happening due to other reasons.
5. Global Warming facts outweighs the fiction (Synthesis)
 - a. Global temperature rise is undeniable.
 - b. Ice-melting has increased than before.
 - c. Extreme weather patterns taking place more frequently.
 - d. Displacements are mainly due to Global Warming.
6. Conclusion.