(V) No truly global "world order" has ever existed. What passes for order in our time was devised in Western Europe nearly four centuries ago at a peace conference in the German region of Westphalia, conducted without the involvement or even the awareness of most other continents or civilizations. A century of sectarian conflict and political upheaval across Central Europe had culminated in the Thirty Years' War of 1618-48-a conflagration in which political and religious disputes commingled, combatants resorted to "total war" against population centers, and nearly a quarter of the population of Central Europe died from combat, disease, or starvation. The exhausted participants met to define a set of arrangements that would stanch the bloodletting. Religious unity had fractured with the survival and spread of Protestantism; political diversity was inherent in the number of autonomous political units that had fought to a draw. So it was that in Europe the conditions of the contemporary world were approximated: a multiplicity of political units, none powerful enough to defeat all others, many adhering to contradictory philosophies and internal practices, in search of neutral rules to regulate their conduct and mitigate conflict.

The Westphalian peace reflected a practical accommodation to reality, not a unique moral insight. It relied on a system of independent states refraining from interference in each other's domestic affairs and checking each other's ambitions through a general equilibrium of power. No single claim to truth or universal rule had prevailed in Europe's contests. Instead, each state was assigned the attribute of sovereign power over its territory. Each would acknowledge the domestic structures and religious vocations of its fellow states as realities and refrain from challenging their existence. With a balance of power now perceived as natural and desirable, the ambitions of rulers would be set in counterpoise against each other, at least in theory curtailing the scope of conflicts. Division and multiplicity, an accident of Europe's history, became the hallmarks of a new system of international order with its own distinct philosophical outlook. In this sense the European effort to end its conflagration shaped and prefigured the modern sensibility: it reserved judgment on the absolute in favor of Suggest a suitable title for the paragraph.

What do you understand from the word "World Order"?

How has the existing world order emerged?

What were the salient features of the westphalian peace?

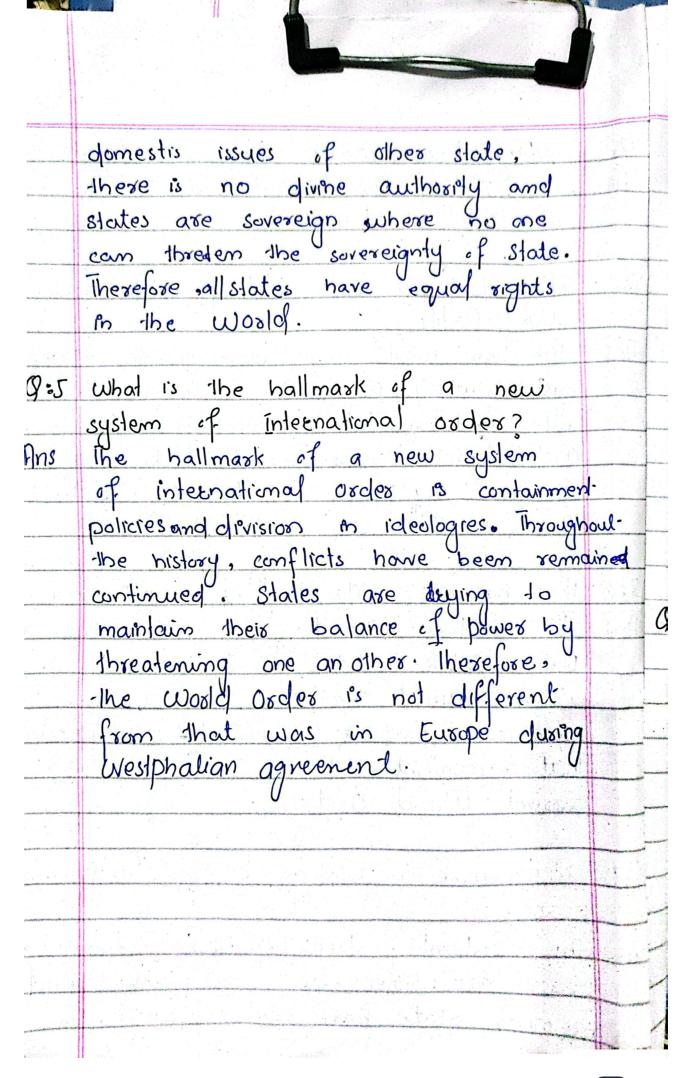

What is the hallmark of a new system of international order? the practical and ecumenical; it sought to distill order from multiplicity and restraint.

Questions:

- 2. What do you understand from the word "World Order"?

CS CamScanner

		and the second s
Q1 Ans	Whuggest a suitable title for the pa The title of this paragraph is the "A of true woold order".	ragraph.
	of true minald parolex"
	by the world order
Q:2	what do you understand from the	nord
	Mosta Cades 5	and the second s
nns	The term world order refers to the U
	system which is based on some stri	ngent
	Order which runs the word It ma	y be unipolar, multipolar or bipolary. It that who i govern the world.	highlights
Q:3	How has the entiting world order em	erged?
Ans	The existing world order is not a	new one.
	Dating back to the Thirty years o	Jar,
	which ruined the Europe. In Europ	e, Some countries signed a agreement - West F	haliam countries signed a agreement - West ! That agreement led the foundation	of.
	current World Order.
_
9:4	What were the salient of the west	phaliam
	peace?
Ans	The salient features of the westph	alian
	peace are: Stilles remain independent
	no other state has right to meddle	Š
		,

Comprehension 2021

O:1 Why does the doctrine of power set by neo-imperial America deny space to counseling? Ans The doctrine of power subjects set by America is neo-imperialism. This don'te denies space to counseling because, America become a hyper power and militarity strong on No one country is able to challenge its power. So, of avoids to counseling and shows its power to the world. and what is the essence of the moral equivalence whereas was has no moral Justification? The essence of the moral equivalence protect their wes and rights. In clomain of moral equivalence altrum remain high. On the other hand, was has no moral justification because, when was starts, none can escape from the destruction of world War never respects the border, lives and like right of people. For that reason, moral equivalence and war south terms are opposits terms and the second of the second of the second	reason, moral equivalence and Way buth terms are opposits terms

Q:3.	Why do countries occupied and under the tutelage of
have the same of t	under the tutelage of
The a supplied of the supplied control of the supplied of the	V
the second of the second of the	Countries occupy other countries, when
MC The color of th	they feel threat from other countries.
The extract of the contract of	Sometime Strong states want to become
The statement was a decreased that the constraint of the constrain	Super power and, that's why they lay to supress weak nation. The tutelage and the same of the same of	have of byper power have no peace because it increases violence, civil war, chaos
	and depeives people for of their rights
	The worthmentioning enough is war on terret in Afghanistan. Therefore, hyperpower brings war and war brings destructions.
	O O
Q:4	Arguably Europe and hyper power US
	are at cross purposes over the uncept
	are at cross purposes over the uncept-
Ans	Yes, European countries especially Britain
	P.M Winister Tony Blair suggested a
	P.M Minister Tony Blair suggester q wise conselling before launching water

