

Paragraph = Crisis of Good Governance:

Corruption is one of the prime examples of crisis of good Governance in Pakistan.

The country depends on taxes and foreign aid in order to run the day to day affairs of government. However, these money are not spent for the welfare of a country or people due to corruption. For instance, ~~the~~ According to corruption perceptions Index 2022, Pakistan ranked at 140th position. Corruption has made people disappointed and less trustful of the government. Hence, corruption is a major cause of crisis of good governance in Pakistan.