

Essay Outline:-

Topic: Female harassment at work places exposes deeper social fault-lines.

1- Introduction:

Thesis statement:

Female harassment at work places shows deeper construction of social fault lines due to male dominating culture and low mentality of thinking females inferior. This can be ended by giving females equal rights and treating them as human?

2- Crunch paragraph

3- Females are ^{being} assaulted at their work places:

a. due to dominating nature of males

b. As they are performing better than opposite gender

- More appreciation given to females
- d. Due to increasing level of immorality.
- e. Islamic values are being neglected.
- Females are taken as a powerless and weak.
- How it impacts the society and building of social fault-lines?
 - a. 49.6% of total population is affected which is women.
 - b. Discrimination of rights b/w male & female.
 - c. Male superior and female inferior.
 - d. Threat in maintaining the decorum of balanced society.
 - e. Effect the next generation.
 - f. Females loose the confidence.
 - g. No security to the citizen of nation.

Immediate action is needed for eradication of female molestation:-

Particular rules & regulations should be made at working places

Females must be given separate and secure areas.

Equal rights should be given.

There must be strict punishment for the person tried to molest female.

Conclusion:-
