

Economic Crisis in Pakistan 7/18/23:6:5

Undoubtedly, Pakistan is facing economic crisis because of the political instability.

For instance, when a political party end the tenure, their policies end with them. There is no long term policies in Pakistan and it effect the economy directly. Similarly, economic crisis leads to the inflation and its consequences on the masses.

In a nutshell, Pakistan's political parties ought to sit together and sign the charter of economy to stabilize the ~~economics~~ economy.