

Essay:

Higher education in Pakistan:
ills and remedies

OUTLINE

1 Introduction

Thesis statement:

Higher education system of Pakistan is confronted with several ills which need remedies. These undermine the efficiency of Higher education system. However, certain remedies would be able to restore its efficiency.

2 Concluding Paragraph

3 Factors which become ills for higher education.

- a) Low budget allocation become serious ill for ^{higher} education.
- b) Lack of infrastructure is impediment in the progress of higher education.
- c) Insufficient teaching staff left higher education unprogress.
- d) Lack of technology not lead it toward modernity.
- e) Political interference reduce the efficiency of higher education.

3) Corruption produce negative image of Higher education.

4) Effects of the ills of Higher education

a) Poor infrastructure due to low budget allocation.

b) Due to absence of technology lack of technical education

c) Unemployment rate increase due to unskilled students.

d) Appearance of negative image due to corruption.

5) Prudent remedies would overcome the ills to restore its efficiency

a) Sufficient budget allocation for infrastructure development

b) Proper teacher training to meet ^{educational} challenges of Higher education system

c) Hiring skilled teachers to produce skilled students

d) Use of technology lead Higher education toward progress

e) Curb political interference for the development of Higher education system.

6 Conclusion