

Umar - Farooq

Essay Topic:

Human inventions move the societies backward.

Outline

1. Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

Human from the day first struggles for better life and continuously is in progress for new inventions. Such human inventions has both positive and negative implications on the society. Either it moves the societies towards advancement such as inventions in transport, agriculture, IT, and production sector, or it moves the societies backward in the form of nuclear weapon invention, Robots, and climate change, and genocides by some inventions. However banning nuclear weapons and improving existed inventions to environment friendly, its negative impact can be minimized.

2. Comparison of societies with and without human inventions.

3). Human inventions leads the Societies toward Advancement:

- a). Robots performs more complex and productive jobs with high accuracy, make the societies advanced.
- b). Statistics and information through technical tools helps government in economic affairs during budget, Exports & imports.
- c). Advanced and modern machinery in industrial sector, produce high quality products, helps the society economically.
- d). Modern agriculture techniques improve crops production and reducing farming cost.
- e). Inventions in health sector such as X-ray, Ultrasound, Laser Surgeries increase accuracy and move societies towards advancement.
- f). The invention of Electric Bulb by Edison lighten the whole world and eliminated other forms of lightening, harmful to societies.
- g). Invention of Electronic devices such as Mobile Phones and computers, aware every individual of the society about the whole world.

h). Satellites, Radars, and, Rocket are the source of information and educate societies about forecast and disasters.

i). Microwave oven and other household inventions make life easier as compared to the past.

j). Inventions of modern vehicles save time and money, and travelling becomes more comfortable as compared to camels & horses.

4). Human inventions become the Reason to move societies backward:

a). Humans are replaced by Robots, causes unemployment, the societies becomes in trouble.

b). Electric equipments sometimes become the reason of short circuit, result in destruction, impact the society.

c). Modern machinery of paper currency printing, causes economic insecurity and can flop the word economy anytime.

d). Invention of atomic bomb and warheads, may cause massive destruction and mass atrocities.

e). Vehicles produce CO_2 , the main contribs upr. to climate change affect the society.

f). Cloud computing and super computers plants releases severe heat, harmful for human health and environment.

g). People addicted to mobile phones, compromises on physical health, stop the advancement of society.

5). A case study of Nagasaki and Hiroshima:

a) America dropped little boy and fat man, resulted in genocides.

6). Invention of Kalashnikov by Mikhail Kalashnikov:

a) Invention by Russian General, from 1947 to till date become the reason of mass atrocities.

7). Conclusion