

Translation (Practice)

CSS-2019

Pakistan is determined for peace in Afghanistan because peace in Afghanistan is very important for Pakistan. It is seen in historical perspective. Then Pakistan and Afghanistan as Islamic neighbored countries are connected through historical, cultural, and linguistic relationships. These relations are long-lasting because both countries depend on each other and cannot survive separately. From the day first, Pakistan's stance is to solve the Afghan issue in a political way. China also supports this stance. In this situation, China said that the solution of Afghan conflict is possible through peace talks under Afghan leadership. Pakistan and China will play their role to solve Afghan conflict through talks for their strategic interests.

CS5-2020

The education system of every nation is according to the temperament of that nation which completes the national purposes and nation remains active for required purposes. Thereupon, the education system of any nation is that absolute system of training with what one can get help in the uprearing of mental abilities and the building up of character of citizens of a nation. The education system do training of people in the manner that they change the destiny of a nation.

CSS-2018

Lahore city is an ancient centre of not only politics but also culture. The Mughal culture witnessed its glory in the same city. It was also the hub of Sikh culture. The culture of arts and letters was inherited by it, too. It was a home to Sufis as well. Mazrat Ali Hijveri renowned as Mazrat Da'ia Ganj Bakhsh - The writer of spiritual famous book Kashful Majub - is also buried in this city / also resides here. During the British rule, fashion of Lahore was followed by the whole subcontinent. Since the inception of Pakistan, this city has not lost its value.

CSS-2021

In front of English colonizationist dignity against the adulatory and respectful actions which were promoted by the British rulers and adopted by people of India at that time. Syed Ahmed Khan and his illustrious and clear headed son Syed Mahmood both tried to adopt such conduct that could be equal and coordinate to English people. Not only Muslims but whole Indian Nation was aware of the incident of Agra Court in 1867. Syed Ahmed Khan chose to separate from court because Indians were received subordinating seats as compared to English people though he was to get a reward in that court. Later the success was given to Williams, the Commissioner of Meerut so that he could present it to Syed Ahmed Khan when go to railway station.