Title:

Manto's works exploring social realities

Manto's work has been labelled as indecent by many of his critics. But despite these opposition, he continued to traverse the bitter realities of life for the oppressed and weaker segment of the society. Manto was of the view that man has both good and bad characters that's why he portrayed him in a realistic manner. He carefully dealt with the vulgar content in his work to whom many readers can relate and found it to be a reflection of their lives. Like other great writers, Manto became bigger than himself by his zeal.

CSs - 2020 Punctuations

Letters between relatives and friends are called personal letters. The most important thing in such letters is the content. Don't begin with a hackneyed phrase like, "I was delighted to get your letter, received your letter or I have often thought of writing to you." Use a vigorous, clear, chatty style.
