

Corruption is the mother of all evils in our society

Thesis statement :-

Corruption is the mother of all evils in our society. It has emerged from <sup>the past</sup> few decades. It has <sup>socially, politically and economically</sup> badly impacted our society, which includes lack of funds, human right violation, dependency on foreign aid, burden of heavy loan and others. There are certain causes of it. It can be controlled by some suggestive measures.

Outline :-

I. Introduction

II. An overview of historical background of corruption in society

III. Impacts of corruption on our society

1- Lack of funds for <sup>human</sup> social well-being

2- Human rights violation

3- Increase in poverty

4- Increase in street crimes

5- Increase in budget deficit

6- Low gross domestic product rate

7- Impediment in way of foreign direct investments

8- ~~Another~~ Dependency on foreign aid

9- Burden of heavy loan.

Marshall

rough and illegible writing

Thesis 5

Relate to these corruption

→ redundant

IV. Basic causes of corruption in society

- 1- Social acceptance of corruption
- 2- Absence of accountability
- 3- Weak institution of judiciary
- 4- Lack of political will
- 5- Capitalistic economy

V. Some suggestive measures to control corruption:

- Generic
- 1- Media campaigns to discourage corruption
  - 2- <sup>Ensure</sup> Across board accountability
  - 3- Rule of law
  - 4- <sup>Ensure</sup> Documented economy
  - 5- Ease of doing business

VI - Conclusion