Impact of Religious Extremism on Economic Development of Pakistan.

Religious extremism is ^{increasing} ~~enhance~~ in Pakistan due to dearth of religious knowledge. ~~Lack of religious knowledge leads to become~~ ^{It is} the extremism because one has only the knowledge of one ^{clarify} ~~aspect~~. One cannot see the other ^{which} ~~aspect~~ of situation and ~~leads~~ to enter the extremism ~~process~~. Moreover, due to lack of knowledge one can interpret the knowledge in wrong ways and due to this, his ideas make one extremist. So, the enhancement of religious extremism is because of lack of religious knowledge. Religious extremism is also ^{rising} ~~spread~~ due to use of religion for politics. Politicians often use the religion for their political scoring. They use the religious knowledge to change the mind of people and then getting vote on the base of religious emotions. Many political parties in Pakistan have usually used the religion for political point-scoring which is ^{the} major cause of religious extremism. Due to religious extremism, the security of country is compromised and investors pulled their money out from that country. Moreover, the national resources are used for security purposes rather than ~~for~~ economic development. Because of religious extremism, the country has ^{loses} ~~lost~~ the trust at International level and as a result, its exports are continuously declined. Due to religious extremism, on every event, the strikes ^{are} occurred and because of this, ^a lot of damage occurred. To overcome religious extremism, there is ^{ensured} ~~strick~~ implication of law should be ~~happened~~. Also, work for the youth to remove frustration is helpful in this regard.
