

of Economic Crisis in Pakistan 7/18/23:6:5

Undoubtedly, Pakistan is facing economic crisis because of the political instability.

For instance, when a political party ends its tenure, their policies end with them. There is no long term policies in Pakistan and it affects the economy directly.

Similarly, economic crisis leads to the inflation and its consequences are borne by the masses.

In a nutshell, Pakistan's political parties ought to sit together and sign the charter of economy to stabilize the ~~economics~~ economy.

basic grammar and sentence structure is satisfactory

3/5