

Defense Day Of Pakistan

The 6th of September is ^{celebrated} regarded as ^D defense, ^D day of Pakistan. It is a significant event which recalls the sacrifices made by our national armed forces during the 1965 Indo-Pak war. But this gives us immense pleasure when we notice the dedication and courage ^{shown} made by our soldiers ~~during~~ against such a larger ^{adversary} adversaries.

The 1956 war was a result of escalating tension between Pakistan and India over the Kashmir region. Basically, On September 6, 1965 India ^{crossed} ~~cross~~ international boundaries of Pakistan, and that ^{began} ~~begins~~ ^{that} ~~such~~ a long term conflict which ^{went} ~~was~~ ~~still~~ ~~going~~ on for 17 days. The well trained military forces of Pakistan responded with such resilience and valor, ^{that} ~~which~~ ultimately ^{prevented} ~~prevent~~ India's desire to infiltrate and occupy its territory.

Throughout the war, Pakistani civilians demonstrated remarkable

~~and~~ support for their armed forces. This collective spirit ^{made} strong the morale of the armed forces and demonstrated the bond between the military and civilian population.

The war came to an end on Sep 23, 1965, with a  ceasefire brokered by international organization. Both sides claim victories, but the conflict highlighted ~~proper~~ the importance of ^{diplomacy} diplomacy and proper dialogue in resolving disputes between neighbouring nations.

To ^{honour} honor the sacrifices made by the armed forces and civilians during the 1985 war, Defence day is celebrated ^{across} ~~across~~ ~~the~~ Pakistan with various ceremonies and events.

These ^{include} includes the special prayers of civilians for ~~martyrs~~, parades and ^{military's} military's exhibition showcasing the capabilities of the armed forces.

To sum up, Defence day serves as a reminder of the resilience and bravery exhibited by Pakistan's armed force and citizens during a critical moment in the nation's history. It strengthens the spirit of patriotism and unity, while also underscoring the significance of maintaining strong defenses and diplomatic efforts to ensure peace and stability in the region.

Mistakes identified. Improvement needed.