A Trip to Cherokee

The writer along with his friend took a flight to an exotic place (Cherokee, a country in a state?????) in the state of Oklahoma. There, they visited a town "Qualla boundary" surrounded by mountains. Its villages represent the lifestyles of 18th Century. ~~A historic pageant played weekly unto these hills represent the ^{brief} history of Cherokee.~~ With the help of a native, they found their way to the antique shop. They were amazed by shopkeeper's fluent in English. The shopkeeper told them ^{that} the people of Cherokee not only depend on the trade, but also on other means for survival. Like Bingo weekend, to attract various people ~~to~~
